CGI Global Summit 2022: Ambition to Action OCT 12 - 13, 2022

The climate change challenge in the real estate industry

Board responsibility and capacity building in engaging investors and protecting portfolios values

Investors are looking for an increased engagement on climate strategies and are becoming more active in analyzing the transition to net zero. While disclosure of climate strategies is increasing for most companies, only a limited number of companies in Europe have so far submitted their climate strategy to the vote of the 2022 Annual General Meeting.

We will review the key dynamics around say-on-climate vote in Europe in 2022 based on a Georgeson's research: results, proxy advisors policies and positions, emerging trends.

We will then discuss with management, board members and investors their motivations and key lessons learned.
